- Do you require prior moving experience?

Because we are a franchise company, no Moving & Storage industry experience is required because we teach each franchisee all aspects of running their business.
- How long is the training?

The training program encompasses an eight week program that consists of two weeks in class room training at our corporate office in Gahanna, OH, two weeks of onsite training at the franchise moving center, one week of webinars and 3 weeks of consultation and set up at the franchise moving center that happens throughout the 8 week program.
- What does the training program cover?

The training program covers all aspects of owning and operating a Move It Now franchise moving center. Beginning with an overview of Move It Now to moving industry facts and figures, marketing, sales, operations, dispatch, finance, the move management software program and our DOT compliance program. Over the 8 week program we will cover in depth all of these topics and more. It also covers the business and business management skill sets you will need to be successful. We cover safety, claims management and employee hiring and training programs. Our sales resource guide book and finance guide book assist you in those two vitals area of the business, training you in financial record keeping and the lead/sales generation elements of the overall marketing plan to help you grow the MIN brand and your business base.
